Philippines (Republic, 1943–1945)

In Jan. 1942, an Executive commission of Filipinos was appointed by the Japanese military administration to assist it in the establishment of a republic. A constitution was proclaimed on Oct. 15, 1943 for the Republic of the Philippines. This government was dissolved Feb. 26, 1945, with the restoration of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines.
